Błażej Wojnicz – President of the Management Board

Polish Armament Group

Mr Błażej Wojnicz graduated from the Faculty of Law at the Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw and doctoral studies in economics at the Warsaw School of Economics. He is featured in the list of advocates of the Bar Association in Warsaw and in the list of legal advisers maintained by the District Chamber of Legal Advisers in Warsaw.

He was formerly employed at the National Security Office, the Ministry of National Defence, and the Chancellery of the President of Poland where he was dealing with topics connected with the defence industry and participated in drafting and pursuing the country's defence strategy. He was a member of the Military Property Agency Supervisory Board and also maintained his own legal firm, specialising in security issues and the defence industry. Additionally, he used to lecture at the Leon Koźmiński University in Warsaw.

Mr Błażej Wojnicz is a former sportsman and a former member of Poland’s national Taekwondo team, having won numerous Polish Taekwondo Championship titles the Poland’s Cup.

Under a decision of PGZ’s Supervisory Board, In February 2017 he was appointed President of the Management Board of Polska Grupa Zbrojeniowa S.A. At the same time, he is holding the function of President of the Management Board of PGZ’s shareholder Polski Holding Obronny Sp. z o.o. By combining these two functions, Mr Błażej Wojnicz is the person in charge of the national defence industry in Poland and the leader of consolidation processes in the sector.